

Poetry Reading with Gene Twaronite

Gene will share some of the poems from his latest poetry collection, Death at the Mall: New and Selected Poems (Kelsay Books)

A former Writer-in-Residence for Pima County Public Library, Gene is the author of five poetry collections. His poems have been widely published in literary journals and anthologies. Death at Mall is his latest collection

Woods Memorial Library Saturday, Dec. 14 10:30 am.

A discussion period will follow, along with a book signing.

"... a wry and earnest take on the human predicament ... Twaronite's formal interest and dexterity are on full display in these selected works ..."

— Tyler Meier, Executive Director, University of Arizona Poetry Center

3455 N. First Avenue, Tucson, Arizona 85719 (520) 594-5445

